PRINTING OF ALL KINDS

Done Neatly and Promptly.

INTRODUCTORY.

As in many preceding years, New Haven in the past year has prospered, though not as greatly so, perhaps, as in some years immediately preceding, owing to the influence of the business depression which has existed for months past throughout the country, the depression causing a stringency in money matters, and a cessation, or partial cessation of labor in many of our manufactories, and the effects of which are still felt in a degree. Notwithstanding this, however, there has been much advancement in actual wealth, and in the development of humane, charitable, educational and religious interests.

The foundations are being laid at the corner of College and Elm streets, on the old College grounds, near where old Divinity Hall stood, and perhaps actually upon its site, for a new Chapel, one which shall meet the needs of Yale at the present day. Departs then the old Chapel, whose high-backed, inconvenient seats, ancient box like pulpit, and limited accommodations, are vividly remembered by so many sons and feminine friends of Yale, and around which are centered tender and sacred recollections and associations as may well be imagined. The new Chapel will be built of Jersey stone, similar, we understand, to the material of Durfee, with ornamental trimmings of Worthington (Ohio), stone, and of blue stone from Malden, N. Y., with foundations of red sandstone from the quarries in our neighboring town of East Haven, and will front inward, in accordance with the University plan. It will join Farnam Hall on the south and Durfee on the west, an archway twenty-five feet wide to adjoin Durfee and afford passage to the College Green. The edifice will be in length one hundred and twenty-five feet, or with archway one hundred and fifty feet; height to apex of roof eighty feet. There will be a gallery over the vestibule at the west end and a similar gallery in each transept, with seating accommodations in the galleries for three hundred and fifty. Over the archway will be a handsome room for religious meetings of students. The seating capacity of the Chapel proper will be not less than twelve hundred. It is quite probable that the structure will be adorned with elegant memorial windows, commemorative of distinguished graduates or benefactors of Yale. The interior will be handsomely embellished, and the whole cost will not be less than one hundred and twenty thousand dollars.

The new, extensive and important building for the Theological department of Yale, a counterpart in architectural design and imposing appearance to the also new structure of the same department on the corner of College and Elm, (opposite where the Chapel is to stand), is fast approaching completion, the exterior walls and roof being finished and the interior work being now well advanced. This fine structure, an additional ornament to Yale and to the city, is another evidence of the great progress achieved in this department of Yale of late years. At the Marquand Chapel pertaining to this department were delivered, recently, a series of lectures to the theological students by Henry Ward Beecher, whose eminent talent has been secured by Yale in its didactic work in this department, in addition to other eminent talent engaged recently in this and other departments.

Yale's boating interests have received a decided impetus in the past year, in the brilliant victory achieved by Yale over Harvard and other competitors in the exciting college regatta of last fall in Massachusetts waters, under the leadership of Captain Cook. A new boat house is to be erected at a cost, with land and driving of piles, of $16,500, upon a most approved plan, based upon observations made by Captain Cook in a visit paid the boating institutions of English Universities, and friends have within a few months contributed over $11,000 toward the work; and more is pledged. The new house will be located at the eastern end of Chapel Street Bridge, over Mill river, and will be a vast improvement over the old boat house which was, however, intended only for temporary purposes.

Fair Haven, the Seventh Ward, has a new and commodious school building, erected in the last few months, and now in progress of completion internally. It is to be known as the Woolsey School, and has a large number of rooms well finished and carefully arranged with reference to convenience and ventilation, and the building vies with any school structure in the city in size and handsome exterior. Its dimensions are seventy feet wide by seventy-two feet in length, and three stories high, the rooms with high ceilings. The cost of the work will be about $45,000.

A new educational interest that promises valuable results both to the city and young men, is the National Business College, re-opened a little over a year ago, and occupying extensive accommodations in the splendid building of the American Life and Trust Company, facing the Public Square. It affords instruction in all that pertains to fitting young men for positions in mercantile or manufacturing firms, or for business life generally, and has five departments entitled respectively, Theoretical, Practical, Penmanship, Telegraphic, and Modern Languages departments. The Penmanship and Telegraphic departments, recently added, are already in successful operation, as is the entire college, under the superintendence of Chas. R. Wells, Esq., President of the institution. One hundred and twenty-five students are in attendance, a large part of whom come from other states in the Union and some from foreign countries; and a few of the pupils, particularly in the Penmanship and Telegraphic departments, are ladies.

St. Paul's Church has received a general change in the past year which has added strikingly to the beauty of its interior, and an addition or wing two stories high, has also been erected adjoining the church on the east, which gives the church a parish and rector's room, an infant class room, and other accommodations. The chancel has, furthermore, been enlarged and artistically adorned, and the chancel walls and ceiling, and the ceiling and walls of the entire church have been painted in pleasing and harmonious colors, giving a rich effect; the entire church has been re-seated and supplied with elegant gas fixtures, and the chancel with elegant new furniture and illuminated panels with scripture texts, while a number of rich memorial windows have been set in, including two in the chancel walls; and more are to be added, till the church is fully adorned. The entire expense of this improvement will not fall short of $30,000.

Immediately adjoining St. Paul's, a fine residence has been constructed by D. Goffe Phipps, Esq., Secretary of the New Haven Water Company, at a cost of not less than $30,000. A new brick block of several houses, furnished with modern improvements throughout, has been completed in the past year on Olive street, next above the former residence of Edwin Marble, Esq. A fine new substantial building, five stories high, of handsome appearance externally and internally, and containing two fine stores, has been erected on Chapel street, next below the Fosters' carpet store, by Mrs. George H. Beecher, one of the heirs of the late Rev. Mr. Garfield. Another fine building, similar in appearance, has been erected on State street, near Chapel, by Rev. Nathaniel L. Garfield, also an heir of the same estate; it contains also, two stores, one of which has been fitted up by A. Foote & Co., fish and oyster dealers, and made conspicuously elegant in appearance with a profusion of marble counters, fancy and ornamental wood-work decorations; handsome office and other stylish improvements. The other store is very attractively fitted up and occupied by M. Kahn, cigar dealer.

One of the handsomest buildings for mercantile purposes in the city, has been completed in the past year by Gen. S. E. Merwin, situated on State street, replacing an ancient stone building occupied by the firm, and Strong, Hart & Co., which many years ago was a fashionable residence. The entire front of the new structure is of Philadelphia pressed brick, suitably adorned with handsome stone trimmings, and the building, which contains a large amount of room, is occupied by the firm with which Gen. Merwin is prominently identified, and by Strong, Hart & Co., for their extensive meat market business.

The Courier Building, where has been published the Journal and Courier, the oldest newspaper in the State, for forty years past, by John B. Carrington, ton, Esq., is receiving an extensive addition in the rear to be occupied by the Blackman Manufacturing Company, additional to the room they already occupy. Horeb Lodge, I. O. B. B. Hall, in the same building, has just received an entire renovation, which has made it one of the handsomest, if not the handsomest, lodge rooms pertaining to a lodge of this quite extensive order, in the country.

One of the most important buildings in the city is the new City Court House, or Police Department building, just completed and recently thrown open to public inspection, on which occasion thousands visited it and viewed its ample and elegant accommodations. The building is a companion-piece, so to speak, to the handsome City Hall and the new County Court House, occupying ground in close proximity to those also fine buildings, though fronting on another street. Its front is of the best Philadelphia pressed brick, with handsome stone trimmings, and elegant plate glass windows, and contains rooms ample in size, occupied respectively by the Police Department, the City Court, the officers of that court, the Board of Police Commissioners, and the Board of Health. The patrolmen's sitting-room is as large as many public halls, and in the highest story is another room of about equal size devoted to the use of the police for purposes of drill. The office of the Chief of Police, as are all the offices, are handsome apartments; and, in short, the whole structure is well adapted to the increased wants of the city with its population of nearly 60,000, and is an ornament to the city. The oldest inhabitant, and many who are far from aged, can well remember when the late Sheriff Knevals and a few policemen sufficed to inspire evil doers with the terrors of the law, such was the thinness of the population in comparison with that of to-day. The entire cost of the new building, with furniture and et-ceteras, will be about $75,000.

There has been erected also by the city in the past year, a new steamer house in Edwards street, a fine street in the northern part of the city. It is of North Haven brick with suitable trimmings, and is surmounted with a tower, and its arrangement is upon the most improved plan. The steamer room, rooms for the permanent men, stables and fire alarm apparatus, are finely adapted to their several purposes, and the city, a short time since, placed in the house at a cost of $3,500, a new steamer of most approved workmanship, built by Jeffers, at Pawtucket, R. I. It is named A. C. Hendrick, after the chief engineer of the fire department, a man eminently qualified for the position, in the opinion of all. The city's fire apparatus, houses and the force, are held up as a model in other cities of the Union. The steamer house of No. 3, built a number of years ago, in an early period in steam fire engine history, is receiving extensive improvements, and the department has recently received an additional protection against fire in a new fire escape and extension ladder of the most approved pattern.

Mr. John H. Coley has at a cost of thousands of dollars, given his building on Chapel street a new front of Philadelphia pressed brick, added to its height and otherwise increased its capacity, beside changing the interior into fine offices.

The corner stone for a new Convent and Parish School, for St. John's Catholic Church, was recently laid with imposing ceremonies, and witnessed by thousands of members of the Catholic church in this city. The new structure will have a quite extensive front on South street, opposite the South street public school, and be flanked by a wing at each end. The material will be North Haven brick, with trimmings of Ohio stone and decorative bricks of fancy color, slated roof, and the building will contain ample accommodations for school purposes, and for the Sisters, including reception rooms, work rooms, dormitories, and a Chapel for the public devotional exercises. The work will cost in the neighborhood of $35,000.

A new and fine building has been erected on Church street, corner of George, by ex-Gov. English, and is now finished. The corner store has been taken by Dr. Andrews, late of Westfield, Mass., and formerly of this city, who has fitted it up for the drug business in fine style, and the upper part is occupied for manufacturing purposes.

A work of importance and general interest to New Haven, is the erection of the new passenger depot for the New York, New Haven & Hartford R. R. Co. at the foot of Meadow street, which work is now rapidly progressing. The depot occupied for twenty years, or more, past, by the company, has long been found inadequate to the greatly increased business of the company, hence the new enterprise. It will have an exterior of Hartford pressed brick, with trimmings of Portland brown stone, and will be in length two hundred and seventy feet, in width fifty-five feet, and be surmounted by three short towers. The passenger department will occupy a large space central in the structure, in length about one hundred and seventy feet, width, the width of the building, and with a height of eighteen feet in the clear. In the east end will be a baggage room fifty feet long by twenty-five wide, and eighteen and a half feet high, and in the west end an express room, similar in size. Outside, citywards, will be a covered platform nearly a thousand feet long and twenty-five feet wide; beyond this two tracks, outside of these another covered platform one thousand feet long and twenty-five feet wide, and outside of this two more tracks. At either end of the depot will be a covered platform, each of them three hundred and sixty feet long and twenty-five feet wide, and three tracks will approach from each end. The work, it is expected, will be finished in a few months.

The contract for building the piers and abutments of the new bridge over the Quinnipiack river, to connect the southern portion of Fair Haven with the portion of the town of East Haven nearest the city, has been awarded and the work has been commenced. The new bridge will prove a great public convenience and form a new avenue of direct communication between New Haven and East Haven, which will be conducive to the growth of the localities immediately benefitted as well as to the public at large. The piers and abutments will cost about $66,000. Fair Haven, southern portion, has grown until there is little room for its expansion in this section, and already the territory across the river is dotted with dwellings and has several important business enterprises, among them the Wire Works of Wheeler & Co., and the Chemical Works.

The Fair Haven and Westville Horse Railroad Company, owing to its increasing business, is building at the terminus of its route in Westville the Eighth ward of the town, buildings in which will be provided stable room, a car house and a waiting room for passengers. The masons are now at work upon the foundations. More than one-and-a-half million of passengers were carried last year by this road, which was the pioneer horse railroad company in New Haven.

The Whitneyville Horse Railroad, connecting Whitneyville, a suburb of New Haven named in honor of the inventor of the cotton gin, with the center of the city, has been put in successful operation, and is equipped with fine cars and other accommodations. The track runs through one of the most beautiful suburban portions of New Haven, adorned with numerous fine residences with ample grounds, and embracing fine sites for others, and specially beautiful when the old trees which line the avenue put forth their spring foliage.

Since our last issue, the Davenport Congregational Church, a handsome edifice, sixty feet long and one hundred and fifty deep, with a tower one hundred and forty feet high, has been erected on Green street, facing the park known as Wooster Square, and a few weeks since was dedicated to divine worship. The society is one of our youngest, but is very enterprising and already very flourishing. The structure is of brick with handsome trimmings of stone, with seating capacity of over one thousand, and has in the rear a very attractive Chapel with capacity for seating several hundred, and connected with which are a sewing circle room and a well arranged kitchen. The church is supplied with a fine organ of the celebrated Hook make, Boston. The merits of the same were exhibited by Dudley Buck, the composer, recently, at an exhibition concert, which was largely attended.

Dr. F. J. Whittemore has erected a fine block four stories high, on Chapel street opposite the Colleges, with Philadelphia pressed brick front and stone trimmings, and containing three roomy and attractive stores, one of which is occupied by Mr. Beers, the druggist. Above the stores are accommodations adapted to fashionable boarding.

The town of New Haven voted a few months since to purchase a new Town Farm and erect a new Alms House, and steps in that direction have been taken. Owing to the growth of New Haven, the city has lapped into the territory known as the old town farm, which has therefore become highly valuable for building purposes. The old town farm was purchased through the foresight of ex-Gov. English. The price paid for the whole place was the extraordinary sum of $4,000. It is now valued at over three hundred thousand dollars—a slight increase in valuation. Honor to ex-Gov. English for his foresight and enterprise.

The Court Street Synagogue has been much improved in the past year, internally and externally.

Ex-Mayor Welch has a new and elegant residence nearly completed on West Chapel street. In the same portion of the city many new and expensive residences, and many residences of a superior class have been erected in the past few years.

Mr. Geo. W. Staples has nearly completed, on Trumbull street, near Hill-house avenue, one of the finest blocks for private residences in the city.

Nelson Adams has erected a $10,000 residence on Whalley avenue. E. Y. Foote has erected a block on Oak street. William Gay has just completed a block of two residences on York street, between Crown and George, and in York street, in the same locality, Samuel J. Hoggson and William A. Beers are erecting handsome blocks of residences, on opposite sides of the street. Julius Tyler, jr. has added another attractive residence to Dwight Place. Ex-Councilman Philip Hugo has erected a substantial thirty thousand dollar block on Grand street, corner of Bradley. The Shoninger Organ company is erecting an extension to their large manufactory, facing toward Chapel street. Ex-Mayor Sperry has made wharf and building improvements at Barnesville Bridge. The New Haven Nut Company's shops in Westville, which were destroyed by fire a number of months ago, have been replaced with substantial brick buildings; also, the Gorman Match Factory, destroyed in the same fire, has been rebuilt. The new and handsome block of the Messrs. Todd, on State street, corner of Elm, and containing six stores, is now nearly finished. In the upper part a large public hall has been arranged.

The new wing of the State Hospital has been completed and is occupied. It is an extensive building of handsome appearance, an ornament to the city, and a monument to State and private munificence and liberality. Its cost was about $80,000. The design is, at no distant day, to erect a companion wing of similar importance and style of architecture.

The city has not been idle the past year in reference to street improvements. Much has been done; miles more of streets have been laid in the standard Telford pavement, and thousands more feet of sewers have been laid, his Honor, the Mayor, and the City Government, further carrying forward the plan, derived from able authority on the subject, for giving to New Haven a complete and thorough system of drainage.

The New Haven Water Company has added miles more of pipe, especially in the western part of the city, to keep pace with the growth of residences in new streets, and scores of new gas lamps have been located in newly built up sections of the town.

The location of a coal depot, by the New Jersey Railroad, capable of containing very many thousand tons, is to be accomplished soon, in all probability; and Tomlinson's Bridge, that venerable and time-worn structure, is to receive a new draw which shall be worked by steam; and for which all navigators shall rise up and call the Hartford Railroad Company blessed.

On St. Mary's Catholic Church, in process of erection on Hillhouse avenue, probably $75,000 more has been spent in the past year. The building will be completed next autumn, and will be finished at a cost of about $175,000.

Application has been made to the legislature for a charter for a new horse railroad to run from East Haven center to the new depot, via the new bridge to be built over the Quinnipiack river. A branch of the West Haven Horse Railroad to run to the Evergreen Cemetery, is to be built, probably, at an early date. It will run through a comparatively new, yet populous and well-built portion of the city.

Another new building, a credit to the city, is the Second National Bank Building, corner of Chapel and Union streets, which has a handsome front. Upon the first floor are two stores, and the commodious and stylish banking house of the bank; above are offices and the elegant company rooms of the New Haven Grays, and the entire floor above is occupied by the armory of the same noted and honored organization. The armory and rooms of the company rank with the finest and most elegant in the country. Its adornments, furniture and cases are of a very superior character. The armory has a floor space almost equal in extent to that of Music Hall, the largest public hall in the city, and is unencumbered with pillars, presenting a clear space, making a splendid drill hall, and hall for promenades and receptions, for which the company is famous.

A new chapel, the East Rock M. E. Mission Chapel, has been erected upon Edwards street, at a cost of about $7,500. It has a seating capacity of several hundred. A new Catholic Church has been erected on George street, of brick, with a seating capacity for seven hundred. The worshippers are mainly of the German speaking members of that faith.

The Home for the Friendless, for the reformation of erring women, has been enlarged and otherwise improved recently, adding to its means of usefulness.

The New Haven Dispensary, where medicines and medical advice are bestowed free upon the needy, has done much good. The applications for aid from December 1st, 1871, when the institution was first placed in operation, to February 1st, 1874, were over 5000. From 200 to 300 applications per month has been the average in the past few months.

The growth in population during the past year is more than double that of 1873. We present the following facts: Erasures of individuals and firms, 2,660. Changes of address, 3,300. Additions of individuals and firms, 3,820. Total number of changes, 9,780. Gain in names, 1,160.

A few words, personally, to my friends and patrons of New Haven, with whom I have had dealings and been associated during more than a quarter of a century past. It is known that persons hailing from some indefinite locality out of the State, have, regardless of the rights of others, and pursuing, to say the least, a questionable course, not sanctioned by any legitimate code of ethics, attempted to usurp my business, and oust an old citizen. It is simply an attempt to appropriate the good will, the patronage, and the old established business of another. These make-shift, transient interlopers, impudent and bare-faced, without the honor of a boot black, crowd in here to appropriate to themselves what I have labored long years to establish, and without cause or excuse. Let the people judge between me and them. Some of their nefarious schemes have been brought to light in this city, and the citizens of Providence, R. I., or of Cambridge, Mass., can throw further light in the same direction. I have, perhaps, noticed these individuals more than they are entitled to, but I will say to them that an honorable course, if they can understand the term "honor," is the best.

To the citizens of New Haven I would say, that I purpose to continue in "the even tenor of my way," and to publish a reliable City Directory in the future, as I have done in the past twenty-nine years, with general acceptance, and until such time as the public by the withdrawal of patronage shall ask me to step aside and give place to strangers.

For the many kind words and assurances of support, which I have received from my fellow-citizens, I return my warmest thanks.

J. H. BENHAM.

OLD TIMES IN NEW HAVEN.

Interesting Paper by the Hon. James F. Babcock. His Recollections of New Haven.

The meeting of the New Haven Colony Historical Society last evening, at Loomis' Temple of Music, was a specially interesting one and was largely attended, as it was known the Hon. James F. Babcock would read a paper upon his recollections of New Haven. The wealth and cultivation of the city was well represented, and ladies were attentive listeners.

Henry White introduced Mr. Babcock, who then proceeded to read his address. He remembered our city when it was but a village in all but name; when it had less than one-tenth part of its present population, and when that population dwelt mostly on the limits of its original nine squares. There were then no railroads, horse or steam, no telegraph, no steamboats, and no daily press. It was then comparatively isolated from the rest of the world, and it was a great thing to go to New York or Boston. Packets ran to New York. Mayor Luther Bradley's cream colored or pumpkin and milk span, and honest Elihu Meyers' bays, did the business of carrying passengers to the packets. The sloops Huntress, Capt. Beecher, and the Paragon, Capt. Rowe, were then as noted to New Haveners as are the Cunard steamships now among ocean steamers. The captains were men of note in our community. The voyages to New York were tedious and tiresome. The first steamboat which arrived was the Fulton, commanded by Capt. Elihu S. Bunker. She anchored in front of the old Pavilion, in the spring of 1815. The crowd that gathered to see her was large for New Haven. One remarked the vessel would in a storm go to the bottom. John Fitch, of Connecticut, was the real inventor of the steamboat. (Applause). Fulton

NEW HAVEN, CONN., May 4th, 1873.

COL. JAMES F. BABCOCK,

Dear Sir:—Universal interest was manifested by our fellow-citizens in your able address before the New Haven Colony Historical Society, in February, 1873, regarding old times in New Haven, and I would be glad to publish it entire in my forthcoming City Directory. But for reasons of your own, you have heretofore doubted the expediency of making such use of it. There was, however, a brief synopsis of the address published in the Journal and Courier, of this city, soon after its delivery. I will avail myself of that, if you have no objections, and will correct any mistakes in the print, if you notice any.

By complying with this request, you will much oblige,

Yours, very respectfully,

J. H. BENHAM.

NEW HAVEN, CONN., May 4th, 1873.

J. H. BENHAM, Esq.,

Dear Sir:—The address to which you refer had passed out of my mind as a thing of the past, and I fear you give it more importance than it warrants. The newspaper report, to which you refer, is already public property, and I have no control of it. Yet I greatly appreciate the courtesy that prompted your request for my consent to publish in your valuable Directory the synopsis; and I agree that you may make such use of it as you please. If I observe any errors in the report, I will correct them, and send you the document.

Truly yours,

used the brains Fitch has given to the work. Fulton proved an able manager. Fitch procured his patent as early as 1788, while Fulton was learning the art of painting in Europe under Benjamin West. Fitch could not procure capital enough to complete his designs. The people declared him insane; but he said "the time will come when some more powerful man will get fame and riches from my invention; but nobody will now believe that poor John Fitch can do any thing worthy of attention." Fitch was buried at his request, on the banks of the Ohio, that "the music of the steam engine might soothe his spirit." On the corner of Church and Court streets was the tavern where the notables gathered and the news of the day was discussed. The project of a railroad from New Haven to Hartford was then discussed and denounced, and James Brewster, who prominently advocated it, was declared a visionary and a wild enthusiast. They argued that all the passengers who then went by stage would not give the railroad enough patronage. I subscribed four hundred dollars of my little means to this enterprise. Hartford men in a few years got away my little stock, as they did that of hundreds of other New Haven men, at about half its cost, and soon obtained possession of the road, which they have kept ever since. They are always smart up there, and continue so down to this time. Whenever the Hartford bell rings, all parties, sects, cliques and clans suspend their controversies and rush as one man to the rescue of their beloved city. I find no fault with this, but on the whole I like the Hartford people "very much," especially their love of "their altars and their fires, and the green graves of their sires," and all that sort of thing:—and if we are not competent by this time to take care of our own interests, we should step aside and let them do it for us, for I repeat, they are a smart people.

We used to have to get a light from a tinder-box. Sometimes neighbors went to each other's houses and borrowed a coal of fire. I saw, in 1829, the first friction matches in New Haven. They were kept in morocco cases and cost about twenty-five cents a box. I struck one of the matches in a barber shop, and they were agast with surprise and admiration. Near the corner of Church and Chapel streets, in 1826, I saw hard coal first burnt in New Haven. People were incredulous of its merits, and bought wood still for a long time. Coal was mined then in very small quantities. People of Connecticut owned some of the most prolific coal fields of Pennsylvania. Dr. Eneas Munson sold a field there for $2,500, which is worth now two millions.

There were three weekly papers—The Columbian Register, started in 1812, edited by Mr. Barber. The Connecticut Herald, edited by Thomas G. Woodward, the federal organ, afterward merged into the Journal and Courier. The Palladium was begun by Charles Adams, now of Litchfield, in 1829. I began my connection with it in 1830, and continued thirty-two years. George D. Prentice was editor of the New England Review, which had printed some scraps of compositions of mine. He received a letter from Hon. Thaddeus Betts asking for an editor for a paper in Norwalk, and he recommended me. I was preparing to accept the offer, but just then I attended a great celebration of the 4th of July, when a public dinner was given at the Fontaine. Ralph I. Ingersoll was present. I arose timidly to respond to a toast. I was an admirer of Adams and Clay. I thought it would be in bad taste to give a party toast, but thought it no harm to express my preferences. I gave as a toast, "A place for everything and everything in its place; fishes in the sea, birds in the air, Jackson in the field, Adams in the chair." To my astonishment my little toast was received with repeated rounds of applause. Mr. Ingersoll was favorably impressed with the toast and inquired who I was, and said I must not go to Norwalk. He loaned me $500, his brother $100, and others enough to make $1000, which I afterwards repaid with interest. With Mr. B. R. Hitchcock the Pulladium was purchased and conducted. It had then 500 subscribers. Providence overrules the affairs of men. But for that toast I might have spent my days and years in Norwalk instead of here. New York papers are not needed as formerly. People used to have great interest to see a weekly newspaper printed and gathered in crowds at the printing office, on the night before publication, to see one printed. Exciting news was then brought by steamboat by the various captains. Signal flags told which party had triumphed. I arranged with J. L. Boswell, of the Hartford Courant, to obtain news of elections the day the vote was polled. By horse express this was done. It created great surprise, and Mayor Aaron Skinner could not at first believe it possible.

The electric telegraph was introduced soon after this. Morse had but little encouragement. Efforts were made to get a station here. Stock must be subscribed. No one would at first touch it. At last I headed the list with $150; my friend, Major Osborn, put down a like amount, and finally all was taken.

The speaker then compared the fine New York steamers with the old packets, and said that a citizen then declared, that notwithstanding the beauty and convenience of those boats, he believed some were now living who would see a railroad between New York and New Haven; yet only five years elapsed before the New York railroad was constructed. New York and Connecticut had a difficulty about steamboats, and New York wanted that Connecticut boats should not run into her waters, so they stopped for awhile at Byram Cove, and the passengers went on to the city by stage. Connecticut retaliated. But Gov. Wolcott declared in a veto message that the whole thing was unconstitutional, and so in the end declared the Supreme Court of the United States.

The speaker then described the excitement which the arrival, in New York, of the Sirius and the Great Western ocean steamships occasioned there and here. The first was 18 days from Cork, and the other 15 days from Bristol. They arrived in April, 1838, and many of our citizens went down to New York to see these great wonders of the ocean.

Our fire department, now so complete, was then feeble. A great fire swept the wooden buildings on Chapel street in 1837. Rowdies ran the engines and did damage, and tried to overcome the city authorities. Several fires were traced to these rowdies. Then another class of citizens took hold, such as the late Henry Hotchkiss, Henry Peck and Elias Pierpont, and ran the machines. I was secretary of No. 4 company, in Grand street, near the railroad bridge. We fought gallantly but were glad to give up the work to others. At the fire wooden buckets and tin pails were occasionally used. People set out buckets and pails with water; sometimes women passed the empty buckets. The fire wardens were an august body—the Napoleons and Cæsars; among them were bold men who would risk their lives where there was no danger. Their unique uniform was described. They blew immense trumpets, enough to scare a fire out. Some of them, however, showed great executive ability. The first steam fire engine was in 1860, and was first used when the carpet factory was burned, and Mr. Colburn, wife and four children perished.

The police force formerly consisted of one policeman, Dr. John S. Skinner. He was a gentleman of the old school in costume and demeanor. He was above six feet in height; a broad and heavy man; he wore the knee buckles and shoe buckles of the men of '76, a coat of the continental cut, a Quaker hat, and in rainy seasons a blue cotton umbrella, which he owned for many years; he was very proud of the old federal party, from which he derived his first political honors, and he was never happier than when he was in hot pursuit of some wrongdoer, especially of a Sabbath breaker, or boys that profaned Fast or Thanksgiving days by playing ball in the suburbs. On Sundays he would look over the fences and behind the barns for a stray boy, and if he found one, he would start him on the run, and the boy would speed his way as if bearing the fiery cross of Scotland, while the doctor, with his face in a broad grin would pretend to run after him. I remember on a Fast day afternoon being once led away by some older boys—I never led anybody away myself—to a plain beyond the Cedars, near Neck Bridge; picket guards were stationed at various points to sound the alarm if Dr. Skinner should be seen approaching; after two or three games one of the pickets cried out "Dr. Skinner is coming!" Such a gathering up of coats, bats and balls, and such a scattering of boys, has rarely been seen in this vicinity. I verily believe I ran nearly two miles without stopping or hardly looking back, and did not feel quite safe until fairly within reach of the maternal apron strings. The doctor and myself, some years afterwards, had some hearty laughing over the tremendous fright which he gave the boys on that memorable occasion. I never before so realized the exceeding sinfulness of playing ball on Fast day afternoon, although at church in the morning, as I did when I took "the home stretch" through Whitney avenue, at the time aforesaid, to avoid the grip of Dr. Skinner. But the doctor was a very genial, good-hearted man; he knew almost everybody and their ancestors; he had a great memory, which easily recalled incidents in the history of prominent men, and of the State, and especially of the revolution of '76; but his name was a terror to juvenile trespassers; even in the nursery refractory children were told that if they did not behave well Dr. Skinner would be after them, which had a more quieting effect than a dose of "Godfrey's Cordial."

We had here in early times one trying justice, who constituted almost our entire police court; he was a man of immense size, and dressed in the style of Dr. Skinner, except with more taste; his stockings instead of being like the doctor's of mixed blue and white yarn, were of pure white, and his knee buckles and shoe buckles were more sparkling with glass diamonds; he was rather proud of his blood and associations, and considered his dictum generally as good and effectual for the proper disposition of cases, as if delivering the opinion of a full bench of the supreme court; in short, he felt that he had to be arbitrary at times and to take the law into his own hands, severely, in order to do full and speedy justice, as he understood it, to parties litigant.

In the opinion of the boys the High Sheriff of the county was scarcely less than an emperor in dignity and authority. Sheriff Rossiter is well remembered. His grey hair, trim whiskers, military air and black cockade, made him, to the juveniles, an object of reverence if not of awe. The boys would stop playing marbles when he came along, saying "Here comes the High Sheriff." The sheriff and his deputies from the country, on horseback, each holding the long rod of authority, used to escort our governors into the city on inauguration days, accompanied of course by the military. I well remember the advent of Gov. Wolcott, who came by way of Westville, and down Broadway; he held the office from 1817 to 1827. Gov. John S. Peters was met by his escort in the northern part of East Haven, in 1831.

Our old State House in 1829, stood near Trinity Church. Near it was the whipping post. The speaker had seen the lash applied to the back of a poor negro. Offenders were often put in stocks and publicly exposed, and afterwards privately within the old State House. I saw a black woman punished for infanticide. She sat in a chair in front of what is now the City Hall, with a rope about her neck, one end of which was fastened to the limb of a tree; she was pelted with rotten eggs, and jeered at by vagabonds in the street. A white woman was thus punished, and the Misses Bakewell's school was dismissed to let the children see the show and take solemn warning. The Sabbath day was strictly regarded, and to a degree approaching superstition. Sunday preparations began Saturday noon. Preaching was generally controversial and doctrinal, and sometimes discussed their divided topics up to "sixteenthly."

Infidelity, too, prevailed extensively. President Dwight, of Yale College, fought infidelity among the students nobly. The old foot warming pans were the only fires in churches. It was cold work listening to the warmest exhortations. I recall indistinctly Rev. Moses Stuart, pastor of the Center Church, by whom I was baptized, and who died at Andover, Mass., in 1852. He, when a lawyer in Danbury, loved amateur theatricals. Dr. Holmes' tragedy of Douglas was his favorite. He personated Randolph, and my mother was one of the players. It created great excitement, for a citizen went and drowned himself over disappointment in love, aggravated at seeing the tragedy of Douglass. This event broke up the young people's amusement, and caused Stuart to abandon the law and become a minister. I remember when the Methodists practiced their simplicities and oddities of costume.

The speaker spoke of the eloquence of John Newland Maffit, who, he said, was a most remarkable man, and whose style of speech resembled that of the late Ogden Hoffman, of the New York bar. The effect of Mr. Maffit's movements in pulpits was electrical. Many of his converts here remain bright and shining lights of our churches to this day. When here he published a little dedicated to Elias Gilbert, then, as now, one of the strongest pillars of the Methodist church. The introductory part of this little book was in this wise: "From the romantic shades of far-famed Erin, borne on the fickle winds and waves of adverse fortune, a lonely stranger brings his mite of sorrow, and lays the star-cleaved treasure at Columbia's feet." The speaker mentioned Heman Bangs, of the Methodist church, and spoke of the Baptists as having established the church, now Rev. Mrs. Hannaford's.

He spoke at length of Rev. Harry Crosswell, who died in 1858, aged 79. He was rector of Trinity Church. In physique, and as a preacher, controversialist and editor, he was noted, also, as a pastor. He spoke of Stonel Cook, Hawks and Bishop Littlejohn, and other former prominent Episcopacy, clergymen in New Haven. He spoke of the old Blue Meeting House and of

Rev. Mr. Merwin, a former pastor of North Church; of President Dwight's funeral in 1817, at the Center Church, and of its impressive character.

He spoke in high terms of the late Dr. Nathaniel W. Taylor, pastor of the Center Church, and a professor in Yale College, a man great in learning, and a great writer and thinker. He was an anti-abolitionist, but he made an able national appeal against the spread of that institution, which excited great comment. He spoke very interestingly of James Hillhouse and Eli Whitney, of Abraham Bishop, for many years collector of this port, and a large land owner, which property is still held by his descendants. Mr. Bishop had great repugnance to tolling the funeral bell, and with Mr. Babcock's help, in his paper, it was abandoned, except for state occasions.

He compared the old postal facilities of New Haven with those of to-day, and paid a high compliment to the present arrangements of Mr. Sperry.

He spoke of Lieut.-Gov. Ingersoll, father of R. I. and C. A. Ingersoll, and paid a high tribute to the late Ralph I. Ingersoll. He spoke of Mr. I.'s disinterested efforts in rescuing a man from State prison confinement, whom he believed got there through legal technicalities. He acted purely nobly in this matter. I have assisted, said the speaker, to obtain the pardon of seven persons, and was deceived in but one of them, and that one was a woman, who repeated her offense inside of a week after being released. He spoke of Judge Simeon Baldwin, and paid tribute to his son, the late Roger S. Baldwin, recently among us. He related an incident when Mr. Baldwin pleaded the cause of a cargo of blacks stolen from Africa, who had risen against their captors, taken the vessel, and brought it into New Haven. They were lodged in New Haven jail. Through Mr. Baldwin's brilliant efforts before the United States District Court, and afterward as a colleague of J. Q. Adams before the United States Supreme Court, the blacks were rescued from slavery, though the Spanish nation demanded their surrender. The speaker illustrated how Mr. Baldwin was totally ignorant of what a billiard ball was. It illustrated also the conscientious scruples of the age.

He rehearsed briefly the careers of other eminent lawyers, such as David Daggett, Nathan Smith, William Bristol, Charles A. Ingersoll, Dennis Kimberly, Samuel J. Hitchcock, Eleazar Foster, father of our Hon. E. K. Foster, and John Harte Lynde, grandfather of Judge H. Lynde Harrison. He spoke of their costumes and characteristics and power. He related a telling incident when Gen. Kimberly and Silas Mix appeared in court, the former for a sea captain, and the latter for William Lanson, a noted black of the town, and how the sea captain put the cunning foxy colored rogue to his wits end to the immense amusement of the court and all hands. Judge Hitchcock was the judge who presided. Mr. Babcock spoke of Gen. Kimberly and his noble appearance. Of Gen. Kimberly it has been truly said that he was a "natural-born gentleman." Take him altogether, I have rarely met his peer in personal accomplishments. His beauty was of the manly or masculine type. One might say of him, as Hamlet said of his father, the murdered King of Denmark:

"See! what grace was seated on this brow:
— the front of Jove himself!
An eye like Mars, to threaten and command:
A combination and a form indeed,
Where every God did seem to set his seal,
To give the world assurance of a man."

The perfection of a polished gentleman, said the speaker, is completeness in every grace without seeming to know the fact—or so to mingle nature and art, that you cannot distinguish the one from the other—or as Shakespeare has it, “hold the mirror up to nature.” This was Gen. Kimberly. He was a model of every manly grace. Although a first-class lawyer, he never pretended, nor did his friends pretend for him, that he had the legal erudition of his friend Roger S. Baldwin—nor had he Mr. Baldwin’s power over a large and promiscuous audience. As a legal adviser he had no superior. He looked carefully and conscientiously into every cause brought before him, and if his client had no case, he would frankly tell him so, and advise him to settle his controversy on the best terms he could. He had a horror of all kinds of pettifoggery, and despised those who practised it. Mr. Babcock spoke of Gen. Kimberly in high eulogy as a military man, and of the Horse Guards commanded by the speaker’s father, of the Governor’s Foot Guards and their splendid history, the Grays, and Blues and Artillery, and complimented the Second Regiment, Col. S. R. Smith, as the outgrowth of such excellent military training.

He spoke of the growth of our Public Schools, with whose success Mr. Babcock is intimately connected, and gave an amusing sketch of how Rev. Dr. Todd, father of Rev. Mr. Todd, used to belabor the wild boys, when he taught a school on Union street many years ago. He spoke of the sterling honesty of Dr. Eli Ives, who wouldn’t offer his stock in the Eagle Bank, when the bank was about to fail, because he felt that it would be wrong to take anybody in in that way.

He spoke of Dr. Nathan Smith and his lecture against tobacco, given to students in Yale, at request of the late Prof. Silliman, who was a tobacco hater. The Doctor delivered an eloquent appeal against tobacco, unconsciously taking snuff at the pauses; the students tittered, and the doctor looked amazed, when Professor Silliman pulled the skirts of his coat and whispered, “Put up your box, doctor!”

Mr. B. spoke in high terms of the late Henry Trowbridge, (father of Thomas R. Trowbridge), who was a great shipping merchant of New Haven. He spoke of the New Haven Bank and its first cashier, Col. Lyon, who, when he was ill and about to be prayed for by a good deacon, raised himself in bed and shouted to the deacon to “be fervent, Sammy, but brief.”

In conclusion he spoke of our old hotels, our present noble charities, and other matters of interest, and said, “As we smile over the oddities and simplicities of our ancestors of forty or more years ago, so will our descendants smile over ours. Yet our fathers and mothers did most of their work well, and gave us many examples of true manhood and true womanhood. They left an impress of devoted patriotism, earnest religious faith, industry, frugality, and good taste, in multiplied forms. The influence of their best teaching still lives, not only among us, but in the far West and in the South; for New Haven has probably sent forth more noble men and noble women to other parts of the country, and even across the seas, than any other town of its size in the Union.”

After the address several new members were added to the society. Upon the platform, listening to the address, were Lieut. Gov. Tyler, Hon. Henry B. Harrison, Rev. Drs. Bacon, Beardsley and Patton, ex-Mayor Fitch, Dr. Foote, Henry White, T. R. Trowbridge and Cyprian Wilcox.

NEW HAVEN AND ITS ENVIRONS.

Yale College.

The noblest monument to the wisdom of the fathers is found in the provision made among us for education. Yale College ranks third in age, and first in the number of undergraduate members, among the multitude of colleges which public policy or private munificence has spread over the country.

The college grounds occupy one-eighteenth part of the original town plot of New Haven, including, quite accidentally, the birth place of Elihu Yale, from whom the College has its name.

The new Theological Buildings are beautiful and imposing structures, on the corner of College and Elm streets, and opposite the College grounds proper.

The Scroll and Key Society has erected a very attractive Society Hall, on the corner of College and Wall streets, and the Psi Upsilon Society has a new building on High street, a few rods to the north of Elm.

The new College Building on College street bears the name of FARNAM HALL, in honor of Mr. Henry Farnam, of this city, who generously furnished the funds. At right angles with this, on Elm street, another large College building has been constructed of stone, at a cost of more than a hundred thousand dollars. It is the gift to the College of Mr. Durfee, of Fall River, Mass., and appropriately bears the name of DUFFEE HALL.

YALE SCHOOL OF THE FINE ARTS.—This institution was founded in 1864, through the munificence of our late fellow citizen, Augustus R. Street, Esq., who in that year proposed to the Corporation of Yale College, to erect, at his sole expense, as a gift to the College, an appropriate building for a school of the fine arts.

GRADUATES’ HALL.—The lower story of this building is used for the examination of the undergraduates and of candidates for admission to College. The College dinners are also given here. The very elegant rooms above, are occupied by the two literary societies, the Linonian and the Brothers in Unity.

THE LIBRARY.—The collection of books in the Library building is about 88,000 volumes.

THE MINERALOGICAL AND GEOLOGICAL CABINET of the College is regarded as one of the finest Collections now in existence.

THE SHEFFIELD SCIENTIFIC SCHOOL.—The building occupied by the Scientific Department of Yale College, stands at the head of College street, two blocks north of the other College buildings. This department is devoted to practical and scientific education, classical studies being omitted from the course.

THE MEDICAL COLLEGE is located in York street, on the west side, between Chapel and Crown streets.

THE COLLEGE GYMNASIUM is the large brick building in the rear of the Colleges, on Library street. The arrangements for bowling, and other kinds of exercises, are thought to be very superior.

Watering Places and Summer Resorts.

Waverly House.

Half a mile below Savin Rock, is the Waverly House and Grove, which is reached by pedestrians in a pleasant ten minute's walk, or a few minute's drive by a road recently constructed over the dyke from the Rock. The House is kept by Mr. Charles A. King, who provides refreshments of every kind at his hotel. Guests have the use of the bathing houses, the pavilion for dancing, &c. Sailing and fishing parties are accommodated at all times. No place in the vicinity is better provided with conveniences for pleasure parties than Waverly Grove. For the use of the tables, bathing houses, &c., a very small charge is made by the proprietor.

Railroad Grove.

The West Haven Horse Railroad Company are the owners of one of the most delightful and charming groves to be found any where on the line of Long Island Sound. It is situated a short distance north of Savin Rock, and is at present the terminus of the horse railroad. The company have recently purchased a very considerable addition to their former grounds, so that the Grove grounds proper now embrace something over fourteen acres. The trees are a beautiful growth of oak, hickory and chestnut, and are admirably trimmed for the purpose of shade and adornment. A natural turf covers the ground, which is as smooth as if it had been artificially dressed and rolled for use, with the trees thinned out just enough to make the grove at once a perfect pleasure-ground, and the most desirable of leafy shelters. Within the grove are swings, both circular and upright, flying horses, seats and tables without number, two large pavillions with matched flooring for dancing parties, a saloon, water pipes from which the coolest and purest water can be pumped in different parts of the grove, and other accommodations on a liberal scale for the use of visitors patronizing the Company's cars. In the open grounds fronting the grove, and commanding a fine view of the Sound, is Grove Palace.

This buildnig is also the property of the Railroad Company, and was designed for the accommodation of parties visiting the Grove by rail. It is a large two-story octagon building, sixty feet in diameter, with a wide flight of front steps ascending upon a platform veranda leading to the second floor, or the grand hall of the Palace. This is a large octagonal room, of the same diameter as the building, with music stand in the center, walls handsomely decorated and painted, and capable of accommodating at least thirty cotillion sets upon the floor at the same time. On the lower floor is a room of the same dimensions as the grand hall, designed as a salle à manger for such parties as visit the Grove by cars, the latter providing their own dinner, and the Company furnishing tables and seats without charge. This room, with its tables, will easily seat three hundred persons at a time, and those desiring the use of crockery for the occasion, as well as the use of stoves for cooking, can be accommodated at a mere nominal charge. On this floor is a ladies' dressing room and all the conveniences appertaining to an establishment of the kind. The railroad management deserves great credit for the extensive arrangements thus made for the almost gratuitous accommodation of the public. The Grove, the Pavillion, the swings, the salle à manger and the entire grounds, are at the service of the patrons of the Company, the only charge being the moderate fare of thirty cents for the round trip, tickets purchased before leaving the city. For picnics and family parties there is no place that can surpass for desirableness this grove. Almost adjoining the grounds of the Company is the Seaview House.

This is now the largest sea-side hotel in the vicinity of New Haven, being one hundred feet front, with handsome verandas facing the water, and capable of accommodating from 75 to 100 guests. The house has been greatly enlarged and improved during the past winter. It is the property of George R. Kelsey, Esq., of West Haven, and is leased by him to Mr. R. Dyer, a popular and successful caterer to seaside pleasure seekers. This house immediately fronts the most desirable bathing grounds on the beach, and extensive accommodations have been made for those who seek the healthful and invigorating exercise of sea-bathing during the summer months. Bathing houses of the most approved description have been constructed on the beach, and bathing dresses for ladies and gentlemen can be had at very reasonable charges. Permanent summer boarders can be accommodated at the Seaview, as well as temporary and transient, and the intention of the proprietor is to make the charges so reasonable as to prolong the stay rather than hasten the departure of guests. The halls and parlors of the hotel are spacious and handsomely furnished, and Mr. R. M. Dyer, the gentlemanly manager, will serve visitors with every possible attention. The house is rightly named, for it offers as fine a sea view from its ample verandas as can be found at any watering place in the country.

Beach House.

Directly north of the Seaview is the Beach House, which has been recently fitted up for the accommodation of first class boarders and transient guests. The house will accommodate from 40 to 50 guests, who will have every advantage of sea bathing enjoyed by those at the Seaview. The rooms are finely furnished; a heavy double veranda extends around three sides of the house; bathing houses occupy the beach in front; a large inclosed front yard is tastefully ornamented with shrubbery and flowers, and a peculiarly home-like air invests the whole establishment. Charges are moderate for the fare and accommodations furnished, and the house is generally well filled during the watering season.

Hinman House.

A few rods to the north of where the cars strike the line of the beach, is the Hinman House, owned by Mr. Preston Hinman, who knows how to serve up sea food after the most approved fashion of epicurean eating. He does not take boarders, but can accommodate from ten to fifteen transient guests, who may desire to avail themselves of the advantages of his tables. He has a neat and tasteful Pavillion on the beach, hedged in by growing shrubbery, where parties can extemporize a dance, enjoy the innocent amusements of the table, drink in the purest of sea breezes, or going to the bathing houses, take an invigorating tumble in the surf that lashes the very steps of this quiet retreat. The view from the large open balcony of the Hinman House, is equally attractive with that from the other hotels on the beach. Mr. Hinman makes a specialty of serving sea food and summer beverages to the delight of all who visit his popular house.

SUMMER RESORTS ON THE EAST SIDE OF THE HARBOR.

Grove House.

The Grove House is in the immediate vicinity of the Light House, and, indeed, was built in consequence of the prohibition by the Government of the keepers of Light Houses becoming also keepers of houses of public entertainment. The situation is a delightful one, at the entrance of the harbor. The house is surrounded by a beautiful grove; the fishing is abundant. There is a ten-pin alley for the recreation of the guests, about thirty of whom can be accommodated by the proprietor. His charges are moderate for board. The house usually opens on the first of June. Tables are erected in the woods for the convenience of picnic parties, who visit the place in large numbers, and who are expected to pay nothing for the use of the tables and grounds. The place has ample accommodations for horses.

Leaving the city either by the way of Fair Haven, or Tomlinson's Bridge, a charming drive of five or six miles can be found by skirting the harbor on the road which leads to the Light House. The view from the different hills you pass, commands the entire basin in which the town of New Haven lies, as well as a fine water prospect of the Harbor and Sound. About a mile from the city the highest eminence on the left is Fort Wooster, which was built in 1814 by the spontaneous efforts of citizens of New Haven, aided by large companies of men from the neighboring towns, to repel an anticipated attack from the British fleet which held possession of the Sound. The fort was never garrisoned, and indeed, was only designed for use as earthworks in some temporary emergency. The view from Fort Wooster will amply repay the slight labor of the ascent. A hundred or two yards north of the entrance to the fort, lies the ancient Indian burying ground. Nothing remains to indicate the place, except the slight depressions in the turf which mark the graves of the once powerful Quinnipiacks. Bodies have occasionally been dug up by the curious. They are found buried in a reclining position, facing the rising sun, at the depth of only three or four feet from the surface. Wampum, beads and hatchets, are found to have sometimes been buried with the dead. A mile or more below Fort Wooster, on the water, lies Fort Hale, belonging to the United States. During the war of 1812 it was garrisoned by a few men, but it ceased to be regarded as having any value for military purposes many years before the emergencies of the present civil war called the attention of the government to the necessity of providing adequate protection for the most important seaport of Connecticut. The old Fort has been demolished, and strong earthworks have now been completed.

Two or three graceful villa residences on this road will attract the attention of the stranger. The first belongs to the family of the late William K. Townsend, Esq., and is beautifully situated on the left of the road, about two and a half miles from the city. The other two are at Morris' Cove, below Fort Hale. The first belongs to J. Albert Lum, Esq., and the next is the summer residence of C. Maverick Parker, Esq., of New York. The Morris House, at the Cove, is in the habit of receiving a few visitors in the summer months. Accommodations for a limited number can usually be found in several of the other private houses in the vicinity.

Nettleton's Cove House.

On the eastern shore of New Haven harbor is a gracefully curved beach, of two miles or more in length, known as Morris' Cove. No part of the sea shore between New York and Newport is more open to the sea breezes than this beautiful cove, or possesses superior facilities for bathing or boating. The long stretch of white, sandy beach immediately in front of and contiguous to the house, protected by the curvature of the shore from all danger from breakers or tidal currents, make the Cove House one of the most desirable summer resorts on the Connecticut coast. The House accommodates about seventy-five guests, and has quite a reputation for the excellence of its table. The proprietor prefers to entertain families for the season, and spares no pains to make the Cove House attractive. His address is George D. Nettleton, Fair Haven. His usual charge to his guests is from twelve to fourteen dollars per week. The Cove House is one of the few places on the coast where bathing can be enjoyed at all stages of the tide.

South End.

This spot was selected by Government early in the present century, for the erection of a Light House, greatly needed here, as a guide to mariners. The first building, erected in 1804, was a small affair, and gave place, in 1846, to the present edifice, seventy-three feet in height. It is furnished with a stationary light, and the place is also supplied with a fog bell.

The Light House keeper, Mr. Elizur Thompson, is prohibited from keeping a house of public entertainment, but he is obliging enough to part with two or three rooms to visitors, who can provide themselves in other ways with board. It is a retired and pleasant place for two or three small families who need quiet and the benefit of sea air.

The Light House.

This neck was originally sold for five barrels of pork. It is now the quiet resort for picnic parties from city and country. South End can be reached either by passing through East Haven, or by leaving the road to the Light House, where it turns off directly to the water, apparently through a farm yard, and keeping on to the left.

This house has recently changed owners. The proprietors will receive into their house twenty or twenty-five persons, who do not expect Fifth Avenue accommodations. The fishing here is superior, rock black fish being in great abundance, and the bathing places on the long, fine beach, excellent and safe. It may be well for picnic parties who resort to South End, to know that the use of the grounds, tables, well of water, &c., can hardly compensate the proprietor for his expense and trouble in making it an agreeable resort for pleasure seekers. His charge is $1 for a table, which will accommodate from twenty to twenty-five persons.

The Shore Line Railway, or a carriage road through the center of East Haven, will carry pleasure seekers to several popular sea side houses of entertainment.

Double Beach.

The house at this headland has lately passed into the hands of Albert Ney, Esq., and is a pleasant resort for citizens of New Haven. Under the superintendence of this gentleman, so long and favorably known to our citizens, it cannot fail to become one of the favorite resorts of pleasure seekers. Its distance is only an easy hour's drive,—seven miles from the city,—or it can be reached by rail, the traveler stopping at Branford Depot, from which a carriage will convey him a distance of two miles, to the Beach. From seventy to seventy-five persons can find accommodations at the house. A bowling alley, trotting course, boating, billiards, fishing, bathing, are and among the means of recreation provided for its guests.

Branford Point.

Is an agreeable and well kept house. The proprietor, Mr. D. M. King, has room for one hundred and forty guests. All the conveniences for passing the time pleasantly usually found at such places, are furnished at the Point, and the house may safely be recommended to strangers. For several seasons past the proprietor has run an omnibus daily to and from the city.

Indian Neck.

Two large boarding houses on the Sound are also reached from the Branford depot. Indian Neck, two miles from the depot, has accommodations for forty persons. The proprietor is Mr. Lynde Frisbie.

Montowese House.

This is a new house at Indian Neck, about two miles from the Branford depot, and is kept by Mr. William Bryan, formerly of this city. It is a first class hotel, complete in all its appointments, and will accommodate about two hundred guests. Indian Neck has long been a favorite resort for seaside visitors, and its reputation is not likely to suffer under the management of so popular a caterer as Mr. Bryan.

Pine Orchard.

Four miles from the depot, is a pleasant boarding house, where Mr. Truman Sheldon receives from forty to fifty guests.

Stony Creek.

This quiet resort, twelve miles from New Haven, is only a quarter of a mile from the Stony Creek depot, on the Shore Line Railway. The fishing here is admirable, and the gigantic oysters and clams taken in the vicinity, have made the name of the place famous among those who are careful about the quality of their shell fish. A pleasant bowling alley and billiard room, a comfortable yacht, &c., are provided for the fifty guests, to whom, during the season, the proprietor, Mr. Wm. Foot devotes his attention.

The Brainerd House

Is a very pleasant and popular summer resort, and the first public house that is reached from the Stony Creek depot. The house is in complete order, and contains twenty-five large and airy rooms, with fine views in every direction. The outlook, from its double balconies, in the direction of Thimble Islands, is a magnificent one. Mr. J. W. Brainerd, the popular proprietor, and his excellent lady, give every attention to guests, and while his fare is admirable, his charges are exceedingly reasonable. This house has won, under its present management, an enviable reputation among seaside visitors.

The Indian Point House.

This house, which is kept by Mr. Nathan C. Frink, the proprietor, is one of the most beautifully situated places on the Sound, the Point being an extended curve into the bay, and commanding a fine view of Thimble Islands and the surrounding scenery. The house will accommodate about 50 guests, who can have excellent bathing advantages, and the best of sailing and row boats for excursions to and among the Islands. The fishing grounds here are numerous, and generally reward those seeking piscatorial sports with ample returns for their toil. Many of the islands of this charming and picturesque group, have been occupied by beautiful summer residences, and a public house has been recently erected on "Pot Island" by Mr. Barnes, for the accommodation of visitors, and another on "Money Island," by Mr. Charles Lindsley of this city. The Indian Point House is less than half a mile from the depot at Stony Creek, on the Shore Line Railroad, and about twelve miles from New Haven.

Linden Point Cottage.

This is a small but exceedingly neat cottage-house built by Mr. Barnes, the proprietor of the Point, for the accommodation of seaside pleasure-seekers, and is reached from Indian Point by a foot-bridge constructed across the small inlet separating the two Points. It is usually rented during the summer for the use of one or more families, and makes a delightful seaside residence.

Sawsonuck House.

This new House is only a few minutes' walk from the Indian Point House, and is situated on Fine Point, famous in the history of that section for its mammoth oysters. It is reached by a fine carriage road in a three minutes' drive from the depot, and from its elevated grounds and shady groves the visitor can enjoy the best of sea breezes, and the most charming of views. The place is named after the celebrated Indian Chief, Sawsonuck, under whom the famous Montowese held his rule and sway of the tribes found here by the first settlers of Connecticut. It was the great "oyster point" of the Indians, as appears from the depth of oyster shells now underlying the soil, and was visited by them from far and near during the summer months. The House here is kept by Mr. Eben J. Coe, whom everybody knows as "Uncle Eben," and whose tables are supplied with the finest oysters, clams, lobsters and sea fish to be found on the line of the Sound. Mr. Coe also keeps the Springfield House, still nearer the depot, and has rooms for both permanent and transient boarders. His house on the Point commands a splendid view of the Sound and the Thimble Island group. Boats are furnished for fishing and pleasure excursions among the Islands at a reasonable charge. Directly in front of his new house a curious fact is presented for ethnological and antiquarian inquiry, in the discovery of hundreds if not thousands of brick imbedded about three feet deep in the oyster shells which were evidently employed in some sort of structure built there at some period "whereof the memory of man runneth not back to the date." The brick are very hard and of irregular sizes, and instead of mortar, they seem to have been layed in a kind of cement which time has made harder than the brick themselves. There is said to be no tradition in the history of the town accounting for the appearance of these brick, and no clay beds in the vicinity from which they could have been made. It is a matter of curious inquiry and research therefore, to learn how they originated and by whom they were used. The brick are very dark in color as well as hard, and no two of them seem to be cast in the same mould. They differ not only in length, but in width, thickness and color. It is the opinion of the persons finding them, that the deposit of oyster shells covering the brick is due to the Indians, and not to white men.

Guilford Point,

Fifteen miles from New Haven, is a headland on the Sound, two miles east from Sachem's Head. The Guilford depot of the Shore Line Railway, is little more than half a mile distant, where eight trains stop daily—four from New Haven and four from New London. "The Pavilion" is a very quiet and highly respectable hotel, largely patronized by many families from New York, Hartford, &c., who are in the habit, year after year, of making the Point their summer home. The house is very pleasantly situated on a beautiful lawn, fronting the Sound. It has accommodations for about one hundred guests. The usual conveniences are found here for fishing, bathing, rowing, sailing, bowling &c. The shell fish taken at the Point are said to be the finest on the Atlantic coast. The proprietor is at all times during the season prepared to entertain parties from New Haven, or elsewhere, with dinner or supper.

DRIVES AROUND NEW HAVEN.

West Haven.

The vicinity of New Haven abounds in fine drives. Beginning on the west side of the harbor, West Haven is a beautiful village, about three miles from the city, very much like an English village in appearance, with its rural green and venerable trees. It is a place of some historic interest, in connection with the landing here of the British troops, under command of Gens. Tryon and Garth, during the revolutionary war. Early on the morning of July 5th, 1779, two English men-of-war, with forty-eight tenders, transports, &c., entered the harbor. At sunrise, about one-half of their land force (1,500 men), under the command of Gen. Garth, landed at Savin Rock beach, the officers making their temporary headquarters at the old Kimberly house (still standing), about half way between West Haven village and the place of landing. The troops were mustered on West Haven Green, and commenced their march for New Haven. Soon after the advance, skirmishing occurred between the enemy and our own people. Adjutant Campbell was killed while ascending Milford Hill. The tradition among the old people of the vicinity is, that he was shot by a lad by the name of Johnson, who, taking an old fashioned musket, and creeping among the whortleberry bushes growing on the side of the hill, lay down to observe what was going on. An officer on horseback soon after appeared ascending the hill, in advance of a small squad of men, when the lad shot at him, and saw him fall from his horse. Campbell was carried into the house of the mother of the boy, where he soon after died of his wound. He is buried in a field, still called "Campbell's Lot," about 300 feet north of the road leading to Milford. A low stone, with the name "CAMPBELL, 1779," in the south-west corner of the field, marks his grave.

West Haven is reached by two roads; one the old road through Allingtown, and the other from the City Point road, across the new bridge, built in 1861 at the mouth of West River. A very pleasant drive is found by crossing the new bridge, passing the West Haven Green, and down to Savin Rock. The return drive to the city by West Bridge, will carry the stranger past the Catholic Cemetery, the State Hospital, St. John's Church, &c.

Westville.

A longer and more retired drive may be found by passing on the West side of the river, through Allingtown to the Derby road, and so into the city; or, it may be protracted by continuing on the road to Westville, over the high ground which commands a fine view of New Haven, passing the residence of Donald G. Mitchell, Esq., late U. S. Consul to Venice, author of "Reveries of a Bachelor," &c. The village of Westville is picturesquely situated at the foot of West Rock, and is a thriving manufacturing community. As you rise the hill from Westville, passing into the city, the eminence on the left indicates the place where entrenchments, traces of which are still visible, were thrown up by the Americans, to resist the advance of Gen. Garth. A spirited contest here ensued, in which numbers were wounded, and a few killed on each side.

Maltby Park.

In 1861 the Fair Haven Water Company was chartered by the General Assembly of the State. The company was soon after duly organized, and after prospecting for some time for the best source of water supply, they finally purchased the large tract of land, now known as "Maltby Park," and commenced the location of their reservoirs therein, at a distance of about two miles from New Haven, and about four from Fair Haven. It was ascertained that the capacity of the streams lying to the north of the Derby road, with the natural advantages of storing the water flowing in them, and the extensive system of water shed naturally tributary thereto, would furnish an ample supply of pure mountain water for all domestic, mechanical, and fire purposes in Fair Haven, with an average head of about two hundred feet, taking the several reservoirs to be constructed. In developing the resources of these streams, the company soon became satisfied that an abundance of water could be procured, not only for the use of Fair Haven, but the entire city of New Haven, by means of these streams and those available even at a higher elevation on West Rock. They accordingly applied to the Legislature for permission to supply New Haven as well as Fair Haven, and finally, in 1867, obtained the right to lay their pipes in any of the streets of New Haven, on condition that the same should be approved by the legal voters residing therein. The charter of the company, as thus amended, was approved by the vote taken, and the mains of the company have been laid into the western part of the city.

Three large reservoirs, or more properly "lakes," have been constructed in Maltby Park, containing about four hundred million gallons of water, and the grounds have been laid out into charming and romantic drives, so that it is really one of the most attractive localities in the vicinity of our city. The company has also constructed a large lake, called "Lake Wintergreen," on the northeastern slope of West Rock, covering something over sixty acres, and having an elevation of 240 feet. The capacity of this lake is about four hundred million gallons, and it is estimated that the amount of annual overflow is fully equal to twice the capacity of the lake. With the whole system of reservoirs completed, there will be eight lakes in Maltby Park, with a capacity of about seven hundred million gallons, and four on the West Rock slope with a capacity of over two thousand million gallons of water, and covering altogether, both systems, over four hundred and sixty acres of land. The company are sanguine of their ultimate success, and they have certainly demonstrated that their efforts thus far are anything but utopian.

Hamilton Park

Was opened to the public by a few public-spirited proprietors, in the year 1859. Previous to that time, New Haven possessed no appropriate place for agricultural fairs, or for other objects needing accommodations for a large concourse of people. The grounds have been handsomely arranged, a fine course for trotting laid out, and convenient buildings for visitors erected. The ground within the course has been excavated for a skating pond in winter, which is filled by a steam pump, from the water of the river which bounds the ground on the west. Arrangements have recently been made, by which the attractions of the place have been largely increased. The ground inclosed for the Park is about forty acres.

West Rock

Furnishes the most extensive view to be obtained of New Haven and its vicinity. The City Horse Cars run during the day to Westville bridge, from which point visitors will find it a half hour's walk to the summit of the Rock. About half a mile north, is the celebrated Judge's Cave.

It consists of huge boulders, apparently thrown together by some convulsion of nature. There were formerly three of the larger stones, each rising to a height of fifteen or twenty feet, with openings a few feet wide between their bases. Some years since the center was struck by lightning, which did considerable damage, and greatly altered the appearance of the Rock. More than two hundred years ago, these narrow fissures were the only home of two men, whose names were once memorable in England,—General Edward Whalley, and General William Goffe, both of whose signatures are affixed to the warrant for the execution of King Charles I. These gentlemen had fled at the Restoration, and made their appearance at New Haven in the Spring of 1661. To protect their friends here from the suspicion of harboring rebels, they betook themselves to this wild retreat, where they were supplied with food by Richard Sperry, the nearest inhabitant to the rock. Tradition says, that they were frightened from the place by the appearance in the night of a panther or catamount.

A pleasant half hour's ramble in a northeasterly direction, leads to a romantic spot, called Wintergreen Falls.

It is one of the most agreeable places for the visit of pleasure parties, that can be found in the vicinity of New Haven. Those who prefer a carriage to the horse cars can approach nearer the Judge's Cave, by following the road at the foot of the Rock, north to the first dwelling on the right hand side, opposite which is the direct ascent to the Cave. The shortest way both to Judge's Cave, or Wintergreen Falls, is through Goffe and Crescent streets. To visit the latter place, those not familiar with its situation will find it necessary to make inquiries at some of the dwellings near the foot of the Rock.

The Village of Whitneyville

Is a pleasant place for strangers to visit. Its distance is little more than two miles from the city, and can be reached by two or three different roads,—either by the Hamden road, through Broadway, or by Prospect street, through the woods and past the reservoir, or directly by the Hartford turnpike. The pleasantest of these drives, especially in a warm day, is that through the woods, both from its shadiness, and from the fine views both of East and West Rock, to be seen at intervals on the road. The village itself was built up by Eli Whitney, Esq., the distinguished inventor of the cotton gin. In the year 1798, Mr. Whitney, having obtained a contract from the United States for the manufacture of ten thousand stand of arms, purchased the site of the place, and erected his factory, together with a number of tenements for workmen. Mr. Whitney died in 1825. The factory, greatly enlarged, is now owned by his son, who continues the manufacture of fire arms.

New Haven Water Company.

Mill river, on which the factory is situated, furnishes New Haven with its water. A new and very substantial dam was built in 1861. The dwellings on the sides of the stream above were removed, and the interval between the high lands on each side the river, flooded. The reservoir for the supply of the city, is situated on the elevated land between Prospect street and the old Hartford Turnpike, about a mile from the dam. The pump by which the water is forced into the reservoir has, until within the last year, been driven by the surplus water of Mill river. To provide against the contingency of drouth and avoid the very large consumption of water occasioned by pumping with water power, steam machinery for that purpose has been introduced on a large scale, the purpose being to use it whenever the waste water is not amply sufficient to drive the pumping machinery. With this economy of supply, it is believed that the Company will be able to meet all the wants of consumers, and that no such contingency will again arise as that happening in the unexampled drouth of 1870. The Company have made a large increase the last year in the extension of their mains and distribution pipes, and have virtually occupied all the more thickly settled portions of the city. Their water is of excellent quality, and the supply has always been ample, except in a few instances of extreme drouth.

East Rock.

This beautiful eminence is reached by a short ride over Neck Bridge, and by an ascent not difficult for carriages. The city, the harbor, the shipping, Long Island Sound, and in the distance Long Island itself, unite to form a singularly beautiful panorama. A house of entertainment can be found on the brow of the rock, with a bowling alley for those who like the amusement. Parties on foot will find the return to the city over the rock, by the way of Whitneyville, to be a pleasant walk. Parties on horseback, or even in carriages, (though the road is not to be commended for vehicles), will find a beautiful view of the face of the Rock, by turning to the left after reaching its foot, and following up the stream either to Potter's Bridge, or to Whitneyville. A pleasant ride entirely round the rock is had by the Whitneyville road to the covered bridge above the dam, and by taking the first road to the right after crossing the stream, and then into the city. Those who are fond of a drive by the water, will find a pleasant one over Neck Bridge to Lewis' Bridge, thence down the Quinnipiack to Fair Haven, and across the railroad to the old ferry point.

Fair Haven.

The village of Fair Haven is well worth a visit, by all who are curious to know how the remotest settlements of the far West are supplied with that standing American luxury,—“Fair Haven Oysters.” It can be reached in a brief time, either by the Horse Railroad, or by private carriages. A short walk from the terminus of the railroad, will lead the stranger to the eminence on the East, which overlooks nearly all of the Quinnipiack Valley. The elegant and commodious residences of Chas. Ives, Esq., and Hon. James F. Babcock, occupy the two conspicuous sites on either side of the road. To parties in carriages, desirous of finding a charming rural drive, the road running eastward from these mansions, for two or three miles, then southward to East Haven green, can be commended.

INSTRUCTIONS TO KEY HOLDERS.

1. On the breaking out of a fire, notice should be immediately communicated to the nearest Alarm Box, Keys of which are always in the hands of the Police, and responsible persons in the vicinity of the boxes.

2. Key holders, upon the discovery or positive information of a fire, will unlock the box, pull down the slide or hook once, and let go. This gives the desired alarm all over the city, repeating itself five times.

3. All persons giving fire alarms are requested to remain by the box a moment, and if no clicking is heard in the box, pull again; if you still hear no clicking, go to the next nearest box and give the alarm from that.

4. Never signal for a fire seen at a distance. Never touch the hook except to give an alarm of fire. Be sure the box is locked before leaving it. Give an alarm for no cause other than an actual fire. Do not give an alarm for a chimney.

5. Owners and occupants of buildings are requested to inform themselves of the location of the Signal Boxes near their property, also, the places where the keys are kept. Be sure the alarm is properly given. One single stroke of the Alarm Bell and Engine House Gongs is not given for an alarm of fire.

6. Alarms will be sounded on the Fire Bells thus: For box 5, five strokes, 1-1-1-1-1, with short intervals, and repeating. For box 32, three strokes, 1-1-1, a pause, then two strokes, 1-1, a pause, and repeating. Alarms for other numbers are given in a like manner.

7. Ten successive strokes upon the Alarm Bells will be given as a signal for calling out the whole Fire Department.

CAUTION.—Never pull the hook while the Alarm Bells or the Gong in the Box are striking. J. M. FAIRCHILD, Sup't, 124 Union St.

Collegiate and Commercial Institute,

Nos. 15 and 17 Wooster Place.

The regular course in the department preparatory to Yale College, occupies three years; but full opportunity is allowed to those who can prepare more rapidly. There are special courses arranged for those who are to enter the Scientific Schools, and for those who are to follow business pursuits. Parents will find, in the instruction given in Military Drilling, Gymnastics, Swimming, etc., and in the ample grounds for out-door games, under careful supervision, just the advantages for physical training and vigor, which boys in cities need. The Boarding Department is designed for pupils who do not reside with near relatives in New Haven, and to secure to them those family advantages, and that paternal care and moral and religious discipline which their age so obviously demands.

Corner High and Wall Streets.

Trustees—Henry White; Theodore D. Woolsey; Eli Whitney Blake; Thomas A. Thacher, Professor of Latin in Yale College; Henry C. Kingsley, Treasurer of Yale College; Alexander C. Twining; Simeon E. Baldwin.

The school was established about the year 1660.

Its chief design is to prepare boys and young men for the Classical and Scientific Departments of Yale College.

For those living in New Haven and vicinity the best time of entering is at the age of eleven or twelve.

The number of teachers is large. The course of study embraces not only the Latin, Greek and Mathematics required for admission to College, but all the common English branches; and in both of these departments the instruction is most thorough.

The terms and vacations are the same as those of the College.

Further information concerning the school can be gained by calling for catalogues, gratis, at the bookstores of Thomas H. Pease and Judd & White, or by applying to

FACTORY.

The materials from which this Paint is made are of the best imported and American manufacture, and warranted not to contain any adulteration. The above, together with D. B. CROCKETT'S COMPOSITION, makes it the most superior Paint in the market. The Composition used has been a study, by Mr. Crockett, for years past. Its compounds being of such a nature as to form a perfect Chemical combination, so thoroughly blended together that no one part can be acted upon separately by heat or cold, leaving a surface, smooth and bright, that none of the elements will act upon, either before or after it becomes dry, and is warranted not to crack, peel, or rub off, by friction or blister, under the most extreme exposures of heat, cold or salt air; and having put it to the most severe tests that Paint could be put under, am now satisfied that it has no equal as to Durability, Brilliancy, and beauty of Finish, as a Paint for either outside or inside work. For inside wood work, or walls, where a fine finish is required, it has no equal, and at the same time it can be washed or cleaned off as smooth as the surface of a mirror, and still retain its brilliancy. As a coating for Iron buildings, and all Iron work in general, also, for Tin and all kinds of Metal Roofing, it has been proved to outstand the best material ever offered. This Paint is manufactured by Mr. Crockett, of this city, who has been known as a successful manufacturer of goods in this line of business for the last forty-five years; his factory is situated in the immediate vicinity of New Haven.

Now, if we can show to the public generally, that we can give them a Paint that is superior in every way to that now in general use, for the same money, or less, which we are confident we can do, it must be greatly to their advantage to use Crockett's Paint, and encourage home manufacture. All Colors and kinds can be had, put up neatly in gallon, half gallon and quart cans, all ready for use. All are invited to call at my office and examine samples of Paints, and Testimonials, &c., from various parties who have used it.
